INTERNATIONAL DAY

International Day was celebrated at Narbheram Hansraj English School on 30th Jan,2012. A cultural programme was organised at 6.30 pm in the school premises. It consisted of a medley of activities like recitation by junior school children, skit presentation, dance performances and fashion shows by middle school and senior school children. The performances were accompanied by powerpoint presentations and slide shows. The themes chosen were the ones on which the children have worked collaboratively with children from USA, UK, Poland, Turkey and Ghana. The craftwork, charts, artefacts and the projects made by the children were exhibited. Some of the themes of the projects were Peace, Water Conservation, Folk Art, Women Empowerment, Save Trees etc.

The programme was attended by Mr Nakul D Kamani, President of the school managing committee, other members of the managing committee, esteemed guests, parents and students. The Principal Mrs Paramita Roy Chaudhury stated that such initiatives have been undertaken to give a global dimension to the education curriculum to make the children aware of the diverse world in which they live.
